Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland, and another from France.

HARLES William the Margrave of Baden Dourlach, died the 1st Instant O. S. at Carelsruhe, of an Apoplexy. He was 58 Years and near 11 Months of Age, being born the 17th of June 1679. He was a General in the Emperor's Army, and Great Master of the Artillery in the Circle of Swabia. By his Wife, a Daughter of Wirtemberg Sturgard, he had 4 Children, but they are all dead. The Deceased laid both the Plan and Foundation of the City and Castle of Carlsruhe, at which time he gave equal Liberty of Conscience to the Lutherans, Calvinists, and Roman Catholics. The present Reigning Count is Frederick of Wirtemberg, who is married to the Princess Augusta-Amelia-Albertina of Nassau Siegen.

Letters of the 18th ult. O. S. from Bassia, in the Isle of Corfica, say, That as the Treaty concluded betwixt the Malecontents and the Count de Boissieux, is expected every Day to be ratified, the Marquis de Mari, the Genoese Commissary, has given Orders to the Troops of the Republick to cease all Hostilities. 'Tis still reported, that the Count de Boissieux has consented to the Article so much insisted on by the Leaders of the Malecontents, whereby they intreated the French King to leave a Garrison in the Island.

The Letters of the same Date from Naples, are full of the splendid Preparations making for the Reception of the new Queen of the Sicilies. The Coach in which she is to make her publick Entry into that City, is said to be worth above 60,000 Ducats.

Those of the 20th ult. O. S. from Vienna say, the Imperial Generals are setting out every Day for the Army, which was to rendezvous on the 14th Instant at Semlin.

A Ship is newly arrived at Leghorn from Smyrna, with Advice, that a notorious Robber who is called Lary Bey, having about 7 Years ago built a Castle on a Hill, three Days Journey from Smyrna, and having got a large Gang to assist him, he began three Years ago to attack Caravans, Passengers and Couriers, so that all Methods to apprehend or dislodge him were ineffectual; and not many Days ago he detach'd 2000 Men, who committed such Spoil about Smyrna, that the Citizens were glad to compound with them, and to give 'em Money and Merchandise, after which they retir'd; but the Confusion was so great there at the Arrival of that Detachment, that most of the Merchants, and particularly the Christians, embark'd immediately with their best Effects. An Express was sent to Constantinople to inform the Grand Seignor of it, and 'tis said that a Bashaw is already on the March with a good Body of Troops to attack him.

The Letters from Vienna add, that there has been an Action about Crojova, between a Body of Turks and a Detachment of the Imperialists, and that the latter lost 1000 Men on the Spot: That they have Letters from Hungary with Advice, that the Grand Seignor has given Orders that every Inhabitant in the European Turkish Provinces who has three Sons, shall send two to the Army that is to act against the Russians; and that Prince Ragotski lives with very great Splendor at Widdin, where he is honour'd with the Title of Royal Highness.

Those of the 18th ult. O. S. from Madrid say, that the Marquis de la Quadra, the Secretary of State, has desired Mr. Keene, the English Minister, to propose to his Court to establish a new Commission, jointly with the King, to examine the Differences that are subsisting between the English and Spaniards, with regard to the Navigation and Trade to the West Indies.

IRELAND.

Dublin, May 9. By Letters from Kinsale we are advised, that last Week Captain Mercer, being cruising off that Coast, came up with a Brigantine belonging to Whitehaven, who had been boarded a little before by two French Sloops; they put 30 French Men on board her, knock'd down the Captain, broke open the Hatchies, and plunder'd the Vessel of every thing they lik'd. A Kinsale Fishing Boat happening to be a broad Side of the Brigantine, and seeing Captain Mercer bearing towards them, told the French Men that a King's Ship was coming up to them, upon which they took the Brigantine a Boat and made off to Sea. This being related to Capt. Mercer when he came up to the Brigantine, he pursued the French Men for 8 Hours, but the Night coming on he lost them.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, May 9. We hear that the Right Hon. my Lord Rois is appointed Governor of the Castle of Edinburgh; that Mr. Hamilton of Inverwick succeeds his Lordship as Commissioner of the Customs; and that the Right Hon. Lord Primrose was lately married at London to Miss Drelincourt, an every way agreeable Lady, with an immense Fortune.

This Morning came down by Express the King's Commission to the most Hon. Marquis of Lothian, to represent his Majesty in the General Assembly, which sits down on Thursday next.

A Commission is come down, appointing John Grant, Gent. to be Comptroller of the Customs in the Port of Inverness, in the room of David Brodie, Esq; deceased. There were no less than 9 Candidates, all well supported, for this Office.

The Kennington Man of War has begun to impress Hands from all such Ships as come into the Frith.

Friday last came on (before the Magistrates of this City) the Trial of Robert Lochley, Grenadier in General Whetham's Regiment, for maiming and wounding John Robison, Mason in Black Fryars Wynd, the 24th of March last; but Capt. Cochran of the said Corps, moving an Objection, that the Prisoner was not personally served with a Copy of the Libel, the Trial was put off till this Day.

Saturday last one Dalmahoy, a Saddler in Portsburgh, making up to John Grant, Founder, Deacon of the Hammermen, while he stood at his own Door, insulted Mr. Grant on Pretence he opposed a certain Person's being chose their future Deacon; at last, to make the Election sure as it were, he knocked Mr. Grant to the Ground, and his Hind-head knocking against the Stones, his Skull was fractured, so that his Life is much endanger'd. Dalmahoy was committed to Portsburgh Gaol.

The Week before last was seized by John Campbell, Supervisor, and the Officers of Excise in Aberdeen, and lodged in the Excise Office there, 75 lb. of Green Tea, 1045 lb. of Bohea Tea, and 200 lb. of Coffee Beans.

One Night the Close of last Week, a Barque from Fife, having been chased for some time by one of the King's Boats, run ashore at Leith Citadel, and was dash'd to Pieces: The Men got safe out; and the Officers of the Revenue took all Care of the Cargo, for the Benefit of the lawful Owners.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bristol, May 13. Saturday last was committed to Newgate John Hobbs, late a Seryant or Porter to a Broker in Tucker-street, on a violent Suspicion of being the Coiner of the bad Money found in the Hay-mow at Totterdown, as mentioned in our former. The Occasion of his being discovered, was owing to his leaving a Waller at Totterdown House. But what is most remarkable in this Discovery is, that the Daughter of Mr. Jones, who keeps the said House, coming from School at the Time of the Examination of the Gin Business, ask'd one of the Crowd what was the Matter? and was answer'd, That they were examining of the Coiners, and that if her Father did not take Care he would be hang'd, &c. When the Girl came Home, she inform'd her Father of the Passage: This so terrified him, that he could not sleep; upon which he was resolv'd to open the Waller which Hobbs had left there; wherein, to his great Surprise, he found divers Materials for making of Money; as also a Book call'd Salmon's Polygraphy, which serv'd to instruct him in colouring his base Metal, so as to resemble Gold or Silver. Upon which Mr. Jones applied to a Magistrate, who in Person went with some Constables and seized Hobbs in his Bed; and in his Room found several Bottles of Liquids, Pieces of Metal, and Arsnick, which he made Use of in tempering of Metal. Upon his Examination he discover'd his Accomplices, viz. the Smith who made the Tools, and a very ingenious Fellow, a Fidler, as they call him; but the Smith was discharged, and the Fidler committed to Bridewell. Nothing was found upon him in his Lodgings, except a few Gravers, and about 10 s. in good Money. Upon his Examination, he confess'd that he had grav'd a Plate in Imitation of a Six-pence; but several of the Letters of the Label round the Head were omitted. The Plate he broke in Pieces on Account of a Dream, and threw them away, and was resolv'd for the future to have nothing to do with Hobbs, who, he said, had been practising the Art of Coining for several Years: For his own part, he had known him about two Years, but never was at his House; tho' he had seen him cast several Pieces of Money elsewhere, particularly a Crown.

During Hobbs's Confinement in Gaol (which is in the Condemn'd Room, where no Person is suffer'd to approach) his Spirits have been very much elated; for he sings Night and Day; and 'tis probable, that as he has a Knack at Rhyming, he will, while he has an Opportunity, prepare his own Hymn for the Gallows.

And Yesterday William Mathers, and Mary Lewis, were committed to Newgate for Felony.

Last Tuesday Evening Mr. John Bartlet, Grazier, of Patchway Green in the Parish of Almsbury, in the County of Gloucester, was attacked by two Foot-pads as he was coming from Tockington Fair; one of them, Nath. Webb of Lawrence-Hill, clapp'd a Pistol to his Breast and robb'd him of a Silver Watch, and about 9 or 6 Shillings in Money. Webb was taken at a Publick House on Coal-Pit-Heath, (the other made his Escape) occasioned by his pulling out the Silver Watch in paying for seven Pint of Ale; but the Landlord, and several other Persons present, thinking him too mean a Person to carry a Watch, they seized him on Suspicion, and being carried before Thomas Player, Esq; last Thursday, Mr. Bartlet appeared against him and swore to the Case of the Watch, and Chain, the inside Work being flung away by Webb; and the Seal taken off; and he was accordingly committed to Lawford's Gate Prison. Webb is upon Record, having been burnt in the Hand, and being ask'd how the Mark came there, he said by the Slip of a Pair of Scissars, as he was cutting a Piece of Cheese.

Yesterday about 6 in the Evening Henry Erwin, the other Foot-pad, was accidentally taken on the Causeway leading to Mr. Player's Seat at Downing, whither Webb was going, strongly guarded, to give a Description of Erwin, in order for a Hue and Cry to be sent out. Erwin confess'd, that besides Mr. Bartlet, they also robb'd the same Night Mr. Holbrook, a Pig-Drover at Acton, of a s. he having luckily a few Hours before sent a handsome Sarr into Wales, to purchase Hogs. From Mr. Shephard, a Dealer in Cattle at Thornbury, they took about 10 s. but he fortunately saved a Parcel of Guineas in his Fob: And the Wednesday before, they robb'd Mr. Walter Smith, of the George Inn in King's Stanley, of a Silver Watch, which they sold for 10 s. to a Woman on Lawrence-Hill, tho' worth 6 or 7 Guineas. Erwin is a very lusty Fellow, 6 Feet 2 Inches high, by Trade a Carpenter, born at Taunton, and had chang'd all his Cloaths, the better to disguise himself for an Escape. He stole the Pistol they robb'd with in Staffordshire; and both lodg'd at one Lovell's on Lawrence-Hill.

Isle of Wight, May 12. On Monday last at Night died, in the 73d Year of his Age, Mr. Francis Colman, one of the Portmen of this Town, and several Times Bailiff. A Gentleman whose peaceable Temper, Probity, Piety, and uncommon Bounty to the Poor, has made him so well known, as to make it needless to give a particular Character of him; and whosoever should attempt it, it is to be feared would fall short of describing many of his excellent Qualities. But it may be truly said, that no Person has died here for many Years more universally lamented, or that will be more wanted. He now rests from his Labours, and his Works do follow him.

On Tuesday last Henry Clark the Millar, who stands suspected of shooting Cann, the Dragoon, in the Smugglers Skirmish about three Years ago near Hadeleigh, (for which Fact two Men have already been hang'd, and a third tried last Assizes and acquitted) was taken by a Recruiting Sergeant at Euston. And last Friday Night a Child of one Alexander, a Gardener here, was drowned in a Tub of Water, although the Water was not more than five Inches deep.

I have not as yet seen the Captain; but you shall have a more particular Account in my next.
